Thanks very much Lisa - our building is still closed but I am working on storm response from another location. I expect to send you the report soon. I'll keep you informed of the status.

Best regards,

Len

Hi Lenny-

I hope that you and your family are doing fine in the aftermath of the super storm. I have several friends in NY who still do not have power. We were lucky to escape most of the damage.

My apologies for bothering you for the FOIA document, but if the office is up and running, I am hoping that you will be able to email the document at your earliest convenience.

Thanks very much in advance and best of luck with the recovery effort.

Sincerely,

Lisa
